recent developments in the market," where many doctors are eager to share financial risks with HMOs.

More than 4 million Medicare beneficiaries and 12 million Medicaid recipients are in HMOs and other managed-care plans, and enrollment is rapidly increasing.

The rules place limits on the financial incentives that HMOs may give to doctors. First, they say, "No specific payment of any kind may be made directly or indirectly under the incentive plan to a physician or physician group as an inducement to reduce or limit medically necessary services" to a specific patient under Medicare or Medicaid.

The rules also say that if doctors stand to lose more than 25 percent of their pay because of the use of medical specialists or other factors, the HMO must provide insurance to the doctors to limit their financial losses

REPORT OF CORPORATION FOR PUBLIC BROADCASTING, FISCAL YEAR 1995—MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES

The SPEAKER pro tempore laid before the House the following message from the President of the United States, which was read and, together with the accompanying papers, without objection, referred to the Committee on Commerce:

To the Congress of the United States:

In accordance with the Communications Act of 1934, as amended (47 U.S.C. 396(i)), I transmit herewith the Annual Report of the Corporation for Public Broadcasting (CPB) for Fiscal Year 1995 and the Inventory of the Federal Funds Distributed to Public Telecommunications Entities by Federal Departments and Agencies: Fiscal Year 1995.

Since 1967, when the Congress created the Corporation, CPB has overseen the growth and development of quality services for millions of Americans.

This year's report highlights ways the Corporation has helped millions of American families and children gain new learning opportunities through technology. At a time when technology is advancing at a pace that is as daunting as it is exhilarating, it is crucial for all of us to work together to understand and take advantage of these changes.

By continuing to broadcast programs that explore the challenging issues of our time, by working with local communities and schools to introduce more and more children to computers and the Internet, in short, by honoring its commitment to enriching the American spirit, the Corporation is preparing all of us for the 21st century.

WILLIAM J. CLINTON.
